me: sup g. Everything's cool now but if I get nabbed, talk to Stanley Cohen in NYC. He's repping Anons.
me: I've already told him you rep me down here Mirna: ok
Mirna: <3
me: TUV
me: ^_____^ me: Stein is actually listening to what I tell him now me: rather than arguing me: fucking miracles!
Mirna: no way
Mirna: has he been humbled?
Mirna: maybe he's getting laid me: no, it's for the same reason NBC is sending Isikoff and film crew on Tuesday - it's finally clear that I know what I'm talking about Mirna: nbc!
Mirna: what are you wearing?
Mirna: video me
Mirna: lemme see your outfit Mirna: and hair and stuff Mirna: remember to talk slowly for all the lebanese mothers out there me: what I usually where me: blue and white polo me: nice tan jacket
Mirna: ok
me: etc
me: mommy #3 is over now and actually mommy was here earlier Mirna: nice
Mirna: i'm glad i have mommy #2 status me: yep
Mirna: technically nikki needs about a year before she becomes a mommy Mirna: she's more your wetnurse now Mirna: hot buxom wetnurse Mirna: lols
me: lol she's not buxom me: and has almost no breast sensitivity Mirna: she'll be a good mother

Mirna: her boobs wont hurt when she's breastfeeding me: very good
me: so
me: meanwhile
me: you should start following Anon more closely me: particularly the HBGary affair me: if you want to call me today, I'll give you a quick and comprehensive rundown of what's been happening and what will go down next Mirna: y do you think you'll be nabbed?
me: well
me: feds all know about me me: some already did before this me: Aaron Barr was set to give that doc to Feds me: before we jacked it and released it ourselves me: my name was in it several times
me: meanwhile
me: I've become a sort of point man on our end me: and am the one who organized Anon's legal defense and paired the movement with lots of respectable people who can now protect us me: they have any number of reasons to nab me and they can at the very least get a warrant to raid my shit me: that's what I gather from one of our lawyers, and seems to be pretty good assessment me: I don't expect anything to happen quite yet, but yeah me: to the extent that I'm calling for revolution on behalf of a significant non-state actor in al-Jazeera, etc, I'm inconveniencing a lot of people me: doesn't help that we just put a spotlight on a bunch of CIA/NSA-linked contractors me: or that I spoke to a couple of them, lol me: I haven't had time to fill you in on my role yet me: but, yeah, everyone's telling me to expect charges at some point Mirna: well keep unnecessary drugs and drug paraphenalia out of the house as best you can Mirna: and assume you and your computer may be bugged me: REALLY?
Mirna: they prolly already have a worm in your computer me: probably Mirna: you say really but people forget me: I'm totally unprotected me: srsly
me: I want them to have the shit on here Mirna: i'm sure they have a worm in your computer Mirna: you should get a new ip address me: fuck it, yo me: I've got some stuff

me: will tell you later Mirna: k
